Stock Market

New York, February 25.—After another bear drive had forced quotations of many stocks to new low points for the long decline, the market ralled to-day. Speculative conditions were little changed. The market was still uncertain and at times decidedly unsettled. New low prices were recorded for Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper, Steel, St. Paul, Eric, Atchison, the Hill stocks and a long list of less important issues.

Activity on the short side was confined principally to the first hour of trading. The market showed little life while the recovery was in progress. Selling of inactive stocks continued, lesses running up to five points. The one new factor of genuine interest was the decision of the California Railroad Commission that where the Southern Pacific granted to the Central Pacific use of tracks and terminal facilities the same privilege should be extended to other competing lines. In the opinion of the heads of the Harriman lines, this ruling, if sustained, would interfere seriously with the proposed dissolution plan and might even cause its failure.

There was some selling of Union Pacific when the significance of this action became known, and the price fell under 153. REAL BARGAINS

By BROADAN WALL.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, February 25.—Real bargains may now be obtained in the Stock Market. The opportunity for the small investor presented about once in Seven years is now at hand. St. Paul stock Market. The opportunity for the small investor presented about once in seven years is now at hand. St. Paul preferred at 106 1-2, with its long record of dividends and wide margin in earning over and above the requirements for the preferred stock, was one of the attractive offerings of yesterday's market. Atchison preferred at 100; General Electric, 135; Great Northern preferred, 125, and Northwest at 132—altogether make a showing that has not been equaled for a long time. Intermittent liquidation continued throughout to-day's market. Loans with mixed collateral were thrown upon the market and sharp declines occurred in standard issues, where some sort of a market could be obtained, while mactive shares like Sloss-Sheffield are practically unsalable.

It is remarkable that the decline proceeds in such an orderly fashion, as

It is remarkable that the decline proceeds in such an orderly fashion, as the losses which have been recorded are exceedingly heavy. The inference is drawn that stocks have been widely scattered and therefore do not come upon the market in large blocks.

The equipment stocks took their turn in making new low records.

The equipment stocks took their turn in making new low records, and the steel issues and the tobacco shares were all weak. Very heavy selling of steel common carried the price to 59 1-2 and further liquidation is looked for in this stock. American Can touched 31 1-2; Mexican Petroleum, Rumely and Woolworth were weak and sadly missed the old-fashioned "wash sales" that sometimes gave the impression of strength to stocks. Stock Exchange officials have issued a sharp warning against manipulation, and those stocks that were marked up some months ago that were marked up some months ago by methods that are now out of fashion practically lack support. The houses that floated these shares are apparent-ly unwilling to take them back from the public even at the present dis-level, some of these shares still have a strong distance to go. The public would do well to avoid common stocks, especially of a newer industrial.

Union Pacific acts badly and had the appearance of preparing for another break. This stock was particularly weak in the London market, ruling at one time 1 per cent below our low price here.

When Eric common was selling at 36 there was a wonderful story afterty

Decision in Rate Cases.

The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day, in the case of the Board of Trade of Winston-Salem, N. C., and the town of Martinsville, Va., against the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, rendered an opinion declaring that the rate of $2.10 per ton on coat from the Pocahontas fields, in Virginia and West Virginia, to Winston-Salem is neither excessive nor unreasonable. In the Martinsville case the rate of $2 per ton from the same points of origin to the Virginia town was found to be excessive to the extent exceeding $1.89.

concern, and Mr. Doherty at once determined to begin prosecution.

The Byrd law, prohibiting the employment of children and females in whiskey houses applies only to licensed saloons. The particular section in reference to this subject reads: "No female or minor shall be employed in any manner in any saloon, nor ardent spirits delivered to any female or minor, either to be drunk in the saloon or to be delivered to any other person, and no ardent spirits shall be sold or served to females in saloons or boxes as to or for a division of the places on the ticket or the spoils of office.

The juvenile law goes a step further and provides a severe penalty for liquor houses than to be merely sent into saloons on a mission, the law provides no ground on which we can prosecute," said Mr. Doherty, yesterday. "This phase of the problem of the harroom and the child has escaped the legislators. We can only proceed against such houses on the charge of violating the child labor law." violating the child labor law." .
